Spanish Production Entity DeLuX Media partners with American Production Entity A Bigger Boat, adds former MGM President of Domestic Television John Bryan to its' growing rank of industry professionals.

LOS ANGELES, CA NOVEMBER 15TH, 2022

Former MGM President of Domestic Television John Bryan has joined PsychoDeLuX Media (DeLuX) alongside Los Angeles based production company A Bigger Boat (ABB) to represent Domestic sales for the newly forged Co-Production partnership between DeLuX's and ABB's film and TV slate consisting of four feature films and a dark comedy TV series "The Shaman From Wisconsin".

"What I really like about this unique partnership is the vast amount of experience we all bring to the table. Their technology expertise intrigues me as well. TV and Film continue to evolve at a rapid pace as we are seeing every day. I can see new immersive AR/VR entertainment on the horizon adding value." stated John Bryan.

"I couldn't be more excited to be working with great friends and colleagues in Spain and adding John Bryan is key. I believe with the increasing popularity and government support Mallorca offers an amazing opportunity to build a thriving film and tv industry, one that will be envied worldwide" stated the head of Production at DeLuX John Schneider (Hitchcock, zero zero zero)"

All projects are to be filmed in Spain with two features to begin pre-production in January 2023.

"I have made Spain my home now for the last 5-years and have witnessed the evolution of its film and TV sector, it is not only incredibly diverse and beautiful but quickly will become the #Hollywood of Europe" stated Joe Q. Bretz, one of the managing partners of DeLuX.

March 2021 Spain announced a public investment of 1.6 billion euros through 2025, Spain's Audio Visual Hub has been working on four key areas: attracting foreign investments and shoots; improving financial and tax instruments; training talent, with a special focus on women; and implementing regulatory reforms and eliminating administrative barriers.
